

A romantic scene of a bride and groom at a wedding reception. The bride, on the left, is wearing a white dress and has her hair styled up. The groom, on the right, is wearing a black tuxedo with a white shirt and a black bow tie. They are both holding large, elegant wine glasses filled with red wine and are clinking them together. The background is softly blurred, showing other guests and lights. A decorative floral graphic is positioned above the main text.

A woman with long blonde hair, wearing a shimmering gold sequined dress and a floral headpiece, is seated on a white chair and playing a black and gold harp. The harp is positioned in front of a large, arched window with intricate stained glass patterns. The window is framed by a thick, dark wood arch. The entire scene is surrounded by a lush, dense arrangement of red and orange flowers and greenery. The room has a high ceiling with a single, large, spherical, textured pendant light hanging from it. In the foreground, there are white chairs and a wooden crate with lit candles, suggesting a wedding or event setting.
